WATERBURY, Conn., June 26, 2018 – Webster Bank is proud to announce that Kristen Manginelli, senior vice president, marketing strategy and operations, has been named to the Fairfield County Business Journal’s “40 Under 40” list for 2018. The 14th annual honor was presented on June 19 at the Italian Center in Stamford, Conn. Manginelli was chosen from nearly 100 finalists who work in Fairfield County in a variety of industries.

Manginelli joined Webster in December 2009 as an assistant vice president and was quickly promoted to vice president, corporate strategic planning. Recognized for her strong leadership qualities, she was promoted to senior vice president in 2016.

Manginelli leads the marketing strategic planning process for Webster, increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of the bank’s marketing plans. She also was part of the leadership team that built the Community Bank’s incentive program (WIN) and developed Webster’s robust marketing internship program, supporting the bank’s talent pipeline and strengthening recruiting efforts. She was recently selected as interim director, brand, marketing operations and creative services, giving her the opportunity to lead and influence key stakeholders, fortify Webster’s public face and drive efficiency across the board.

A resident of Fairfield, Connecticut, she is a graduate of the University of Connecticut with both a bachelor’s and master’s degree in accounting and is a Certified Public Accountant.

At Webster, Manginelli has been active with Junior Achievement and has mentored students. At home, she’s involved with her children’s daycare and spends her free time with family.
